UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

It Has Caused Consternation in Some Circles and Relief in Others.

RANDOM FIRING HAS STOPPED

General Impression That Governor Beckham Proposed to Have Order in Jackson and Let the Law Take its Course.

Jackson, Ky. June 12.—Putnam town under martial law with the voice of martial law in the air has created consternation in some circles and relief in others. The shooting and firing has stopped. The town is quiet. The people are relieved. The shooting and firing has stopped. The town is quiet. The people are relieved.

With Colonel Williams in command of a battalion of troops to execute in order of the provost marshal a State Inspector lines watching the progress of the trial as well as the conditions in the town there is a general impression that Governor Beckham proposes to have order in Jackson and let the law take its course. The shooting and firing has stopped. The town is quiet. The people are relieved.

PRELIMINARY HEARING HELD

Accused Men Bound Over to Answer Before the United States Grand Jury

Baltimore June 12.—The preliminary hearing of C. L. Worth Upton and Thomas W. McGregor charged with complicity in the postoffice department frauds took place before United States Commissioner Rogers. The specific charge against Upton and McGregor was that they had conspired with C. E. Smith a trunk merchant of this city to furnish mail pouches to the government at an exorbitant figure.

In the testimony Smith was used as a witness for the government. He testified that he bought the pouches in 10,000 lots from a firm in Massachusetts paying 20 and 35 cents per pouch. On the advice of Upton he put in a bid at 80 cents which was accepted. When he got the money he gave 40 per cent to Upton and McGregor and kept the balance of the profits for himself. He said he sent the bids to Supt. A. W. Machen at Washington. Commissioner Rogers bound over the accused men to answer before the United States grand jury which meets Saturday.

To Create Forest Reserves
Washington June 12.—The President has issued a proclamation suspending a former proclamation for the creation of the Lewis and Clark forest reserve in Montana. The new proclamation extends the boundaries of the reservation so as to include the proposed Kathead reservation and also contiguous territory. The commissioner of the general land office has ordered the temporary withdrawal of about 200,000 acres of land in the Great Falls Montana land district with the view of creating a forest reserve to be known as the Highwood mountain reserve.

New York June 12.—The trial of Robert A. Ammon formerly counsel for William F. Miller on a charge of having received $30,000 of the money taken in by the Franklin syndicate when he knew the same to be stolen was continued. Under cross examination Miller said after he was sent to Sing Sing he gave Ammon $60,000 in bonds. He said the Franklin syndicate took in $450,000 of which Schlesinger received $175,000 and the balance.

President at Home
Washington June 12.—At 10 o'clock President Roosevelt was at home. He was accompanied by the other members of the family. The president and his daughter and secretary went at once to the White House.

The Pope Deeply Shocked
Rome June 12.—The pope when informed of the tragedy at Belgrade was deeply shocked and exclaimed: "When will the people learn that crimes stained with blood are not worth having?"

CRISIS HAS PASSED.

No Definite Idea Can be Formed of the Loss of Property.

LOSS OF LIFE EXAGGERATED

The River is Stationary at 37.9 Feet—
An Extension of the Calamity is Not Expected—Caring for Refugees of the Flood.

East St. Louis, Ills., June 12.—The crisis of the flood situation in this city has passed. Boat crews which were occupied in rescuing victims of the flood devoted themselves to saving property and bringing to higher ground isolated refugees who previously had not believed themselves in immediate danger.

Since the disastrous break in the Illinois Central levee the flood has made no dangerous breaks, although a portion of the Baltimore & Ohio embankment gave way and the flood area was further increased. With the river stationary as it is, at 37.9 feet, the probability of a recession of the river level and the proved strength of the Broadway embankment, an extension of the calamity is not expected. No one could be found to-day who could give anything like a definite idea of the property loss. Vague mention of "millions of dollars" was the nearest even the best informed citizens could give. There is a general disposition to accept minimum reports of loss of life, rather than the first exaggerated stories. One prominent undertaker avowed that there had been no loss of life directly in the flood, although there had been deaths later due indirectly to the overflow. No bodies were recovered lately.

The work has been and will continue to be that of caring for the refugees. During much of the day the city was under military rule, though Mayor Cook and his chief of police were the guiding heads. It was found that the conditions necessitating the issue of permits to visit threatened portions of the city and for other purposes were working a hardship on many citizens, and the discipline was relaxed to allow free communication between here and the Missouri side. "There has been much confusion," said Mayor Cook, "but I believe that we have brought about order and the redemption of the city will proceed with the system that will result in the least loss."

New York Postoffice Investigation.
New York, June 12.—Four additional postoffice inspectors arrived here from the west to assist in the investigations of the New York postoffice and 48 men who are now filling places in the general postoffice as superintendents were informed by the first assistant postmaster general, through a letter to Postmaster Van Cott, that they would in all probability have to be reduced to the grade of a common clerk, and in addition have their pay cut $250 to $1,000 per year each. In the general postoffice are 48 men designated on the pay rolls and roster of the department as cashiers and finance clerks. It is explained at the post office that they are really superintendents of departments for which there is no official classification or salary in keeping with the work demanded they were placed on the rolls as cashiers and finance clerks. Through this classification the men were paid $2,000 and $2,200 per annum. The result of to-day's order, unless modified, will be to reduce them to positions at $1,400.

Respectfully Declined.
London, June 12.—Speaking in London, the Earl of Rosebery said he had been invited in terms of almost tender eloquence to resume the leadership of the Liberal party. To that he could only say he had been a leader of the Liberal party before, and had a very vivid recollection of that experience.

DEAD OF THE DAY.

Mrs. Nancy L. Adams.
Waynesburg, Pa., June 12.—Mrs. Nancy Ledwith Adams, widow of Dawson Adams, and one of the oldest residents of Greene county, is dead.

Mrs. Margaret G. Simons.
Pittsburg, June 12.—Mrs. Margaret G. Simons, a well-known soprano soloist in Braddock musical circles, is dead at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sarah McCune, in Jones avenue, North Braddock. Death was due to heart failure.

G. B. Oliver.
Washington, Pa., June 12.—Word was received in Washington of the death at Indiana of G. B. Oliver, of Washington. The deceased died suddenly from heart trouble. Mr. Oliver was one of the best-known citizens of this city, and was aged 74. He was visiting a daughter at Indiana when his death occurred.

"Dooney" Harris.
New York, June 12.—"Dooney" Harris, an old-time prize fighter, contemporary of "Tom" Mace, "Tom" Allen, "Joe" Goss, "Jim" Elliott and others of the old school of fighters, died of pneumonia, aged 70 years. He achieved fame when, on May 4, 1864, in England, in a bare knuckle fight, he defeated "Patsy" Marley, the then light-weight champion of the world. Later he came to America and fought some battles here which are remembered by old timers.

A COLORED WOMAN KIDNAPPED

Stowed Away in the Fire-Room of a Steamer and Brought to This Country.

New York, June 11.—By the arrival of two men and the retention of part of the fire-room force of the Corica Castle, the immigration authorities have taken the first step in what they say is one of the most remarkable cases that ever came to their attention. It involves the practical kidnapping of a young colored woman in South Africa, stowing her away in the fire-room and bringing her to this country and landing her without the officers of the ship ever knowing anything about the matter.

The woman, who is now on Ellis Island, is Sarah Abrahams, of Cape Town, South Africa. The men arrested are A. Jones, alias George Harris, alias Julius Jones, alias George Jones, and Frank Voss both Germans on the Corica Castle.

The woman was lured on board at Cape Town, kept secreted during the voyage, and smuggled ashore. Recently she was arrested for vagrancy and the story came out. The laws provide heavy penalties for such an act, and the federal authorities will prosecute the men vigorously.

Distinguished Orators.

Lincoln, Neb., June 12.—W. J. Bryan made the announcement that the Jefferson club, of Fairview, his country home, will hold a fourth of July celebration this year, at which Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland; Richard S. Wynne, of Texas, and City Attorney Taylor, of Chicago, will be orators.

Korean Prince Assaulted.

Columbus, O., June 12.—Prince Ye, son of the emperor of Korea, a student at the Ohio Wesleyan university, together with his secretary, Ewacha, were assaulted at Stratford Park, a summer resort, near this city. The prince has called his father and international complications may result.

Business Portion of Town Burned.

Maysville, Ky., June 12.—The business portion of Mays' Lick, near here, was burned, including the Presbyterian church. Loss about $100,000.

JUNE COURT IS OVER.

Only a Few Cases Yet Remain to be Cleared Off Docket.

VERDICTS IN SOME MINOR CASES

All of the Cases Will Be Cleared Up by Tomorrow—Kate Johns Convicted—Some Sentences May Be Imposed on Saturday.

Uniontown, June 12.—The June term of court is rapidly drawing to a close. With the conclusion of the Wense, or Vincent murder trial, which was compromised Thursday by the defendant pleading guilty, all of the murder trials set for this term of court are over. It is now likely that the trial list will be completed this week, as everything of importance is over and the remaining work is light.

Before Judge's Report and United Thursday afternoon a number of cases of minor importance were taken up and disposed of. In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Kaid Amos, charged by Robert C. McDonald with assault and battery, aggravated assault and battery and assault and battery with intent to commit murder, a verdict of guilty was returned on the first and second counts and not guilty on the third. McDonald alleged that Amos assaulted him and attempted to murder him by knocking him down with a blunt instrument and then robbed him of $11 in money, some clothing and other personal property.

Martin V. Riley, charged by Charles J. Stewart with larceny by bailor and embezzlement by employee, was found guilty. Stewart alleged that Riley, being a servant in his employ, received $500 for his employer, and instead of turning it over to him, kept the same. The defendant pleaded guilty to the first count.

A case that attracted much attention in court this morning was that against Miss Kate Johns, tried for keeping a bawdy house at Uniontown. John O'Neal was the prosecutor. Miss Johns was convicted. The last cases on the calendar will be cleared up by tomorrow and some sentences will likely be imposed at the afternoon session.

L. Herskowitz, charged by Mary White with assault and battery, was found not guilty, but directed to pay the costs of the prosecution.

Philip Hallow and George David, charged by Andy Gellie with larceny and receiving stolen goods, were found not guilty.

MORRIS X ROADS.

Personal Paragraphs from the Metropolis of Immortal Springhill.

Morris Roads, June 11.—Fifty more ovens are being added to the Acheson plant, making total of 150. Fifty ovens have been completed at Outcrop by the Rich Hill Company. Several new dwelling houses with mountain water in each are finished.

The siding and coke plant on the Patton farm, company houses, etc., are being pushed.

Ned Minor Scott of the firm of Scott Bros. at Dunbar is visiting his parents with his wife and child.

The Georges Creek Oil & Gas Company have struck a good gusher in their first well in Fallen Timbers at the depth of 1,430 feet. Two more wells are to be put down this summer. Supervisor David Lynn is repairing and stoning the public roads.

The Gans Brass Band will have a grand festival and picnic on Saturday, June 20. There will be a ball game between the Dunbar and Gans teams, being the deciding game of a series.

Much dissatisfaction exists here on the proposed rural delivery and the division of "Immortal Springhill" into voting precincts. Some want four divisions or none, viz., Morgan schoolhouse, Bunker Hill schoolhouse, Cheat Hill schoolhouse and Fallen Timber schoolhouse, making Morgantown road the division line and the Springfield Furnace road another and Cheat river the other.

H. P. Eberhart is building an addition to his residence.

Farmers are pleased with the rainy weather.

CLASS RUSH—USUAL RESULTS

Superintendent of Instruction Thrown Down a Flight of Stairs.

Canton, June 12.—Bruised heads and disfigured faces are conspicuous in the high school, pupils and faculty sharing in the suffering. It is all on account of a class rush. The senior class, to be graduated next week, held exercises in the high school auditorium. Juniors were there in force, flaunting their colors indistinctly.

Just as the crowd was leaving the hall a senior grabbed a junior's collar and applying a match burned the ribbons in view of the crowd. A lusty junior grappled him and began punting his head. Then there was a general class mix up. The faculty intervened to restore order and were in the thickest of the fray. Superintendent of Instruction J. M. Sarvor was thrown down a flight of stairs; Supervisor Schwitzer received a bloody nose and pupils have all kinds of scratches and bruises.

Right to Inspect Granted.

New York, June 12.—Justice Grebaum handed down the memorandum of a decision granting to the plaintiffs in the fight for the Charles L. Fair millions the right to inspect the agreement of settlement executed in California in August last, and by which Mrs. Hannah E. Nelson, the mother of Mrs. Charles L. Fair, and Mrs. Nelson's children relinquished their claims to the Fair estate to Mrs. Herman Oelrichs and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr. The attorneys for Mrs. Nelson are to be permitted under the order of court to see the papers in the possession of attorneys for Mrs. Oelrichs and Mrs. Vanderbilt, Jr.

Murderer and Suicide.

Indianapolis, June 12.—James Dumas, proprietor of a transfer company here, killed Sarah F. King, wife of Wesley R. King, a workman, and then committed suicide. The shooting was done at the King home. The dead bodies were found by a daughter of the murdered woman. There were two bullet holes in the woman's head. On the coat of Dumas was a button photograph of the murdered woman. He also wore several of her rings. The daughter said the two had been together considerably for several years. Dumas said at noon to a friend that he had quarreled with "his woman," and was going to kill himself.
